WHITE RIOT

Thousands of White youths, such as these Geordie lads pictured below, are fed up with squalid housing, unemployment, and police oppression and violence.

Their anger is likely to explode soon.

TENSION

BRITAIN FACES a wave of White unemployment riots this summer. Mounting anger at the degradation and hopelessness of the dole queue has combined with resentment of heavy-handed policing of White working class areas. The mixture is explosive.

It was always inevitable that a return to the conditions of the 1930's would bring a return to the violent confrontations seen during those years in London, Belfast, Glasgow and many Northern towns.

The tension which has been building up for some time first boiled over in a number of otherwise inexplicable brawls between white youths and the police in several English cities last New Year's Eve.

REAL DANGER

Now the violent undercurrent is building up in various towns and cities. The MP for Middlesbrough has admitted that the government's economic failure has led to a real danger of protest rioting in the town. And when police used unnecessary violence to arrest several noisy drunks in Newcastle city centre at the end of March, a crowd of 300 White youths acted to stop them, stoning police cars and rampaging through the shopping precinct.

Because of "softly, softly" orders from the Home Secretary and promotion-hungry senior officers, the police have received several real beatings at the hands of rioting Blacks. So to show that they still rule the streets, the police have turned with increasing ferocity onto softer targets like young Whites on street corners, and even "respectable" motorists.

SHORT-SIGHTED

This short-sighted policy is now starting to rebound. The police are now distrusted by millions of perfectly law-abiding Britons. They are actively hated by hundreds of thousands of decent young people. They have already clashed with thousands of patriotic working class people during the miners strike and in the protests against the Anglo-Irish agreement.

The cycle of "riot/ repression/ riot" which threatens to start up in hitherto peaceful parts of White Britain can still be avoided. But only if urgent steps are taken to remove the causes of the problem by making sure that there is:

1) An end to the "militarization" of the police and an end to their harassment of White youth.

2) Emergency economic aid designed to bring real hope to the blighted industrial heartlands of England, Wales, Scotland and Ulster.

The government still has time to act. But if something is not done at once, it will be too late.

This is part of a series of articles researched and written by the Security Department of the National Front, detailing the history and purpose of Searchlight magazine.

EXPOSING THE HATEMONGERS

PART 3

SEARCHLIGHT magazine is published by the Searchlight Publishing Company. Shareholders of this company include Gerry Gable; Michael Cohen; Elizabeth Ludmer and David Edgar.

ELIZABETH LUDMER owns shares in Searchlight Publishing Company. She is the widow of Maurice Ludmer a former editor of Searchlight magazine. Ludmer had been associated with Communist Party activities for many years. In 1963 he sponsored a Mrs. M.O'Brien as Communist candidate in Moseley Ward of Birmingham in the local elections. In 1967 he performed a similar service for the Communist Party candidate Mr. Brian M. Chambers.

In the February 1976 issue of Searchlight, a column by Sean Sinclair favourably publicized a speech by the President of the Official Sinn Fein, the political wing of the Official IRA. In December 1976, Searchlight was described by a stipendiary magistrate, Mr. John Milward, as "scurrilous and disreputable". He drew particular attention to the way in which it listed the dates, times and places of National Front meetings, marches and rallies, and commented "What purpose can there be in advertizing opponents' meetings except for the purpose of identifying them and creating disorder and violence? This seems to be an attempt to stir up trouble which is to be very strongly deprecated". (See Birmingham Post, 31.12.1976.).

Maurice Ludmer was a member of the "Steering Committee" of the Anti-Nazi League. He was the principal organizer of a counter-demonstration against a private meeting of the Young National Front held at the Digbeth Hall in Birmingham, in 1978, which resulted in an enormous riot in which several policemen were badly injured, and terrorized shoppers in the central area of the city. During the two weeks leading up to the riot, the Committee which Ludmer led, made it clear that his counter-demonstrators were going to pose a serious public order problem for the police, and demanded that they be rewarded for making these threats by means of Birmingham City Council cancelling the booking to the YNF for the hall. Mr. Ludmer explained this technique in an interview in which he gave to Miss Toynbee published in the Guardian on the 25th February, 1980. The relevant extract is as follows:- "He (Ludmer) believes that the right against the Front marches is to counter - demonstrate..... He says that counter - demonstrations have greatly hindered the Front. "It just isn't true that the publicity from clashes at these marches does the Front good. I've seen their internal memos and they regard their violent

David Edgar - Author of fiction including Destiny and Searchlight.

Mosley's marches in the early 1960's were banned for public order rather than for anti - racist reasons...."

The address listed for Elizabeth Ludmer on Company records is a four - bedroomed house in Sandford Road, Moseley, Birmingham. The house has been used for a number of marxist functions' including a "Garden Party Social" held on Sunday, 10th August 1986.

David Edgar is another shareholder in Searchlight Publishing Company. Edgar, like Elizabeth Ludmer, also lives in Moseley in Birmingham, at an address in Cotton Lane. Edgar is one of the more intelligent people involved with Searchlight magazine - he was educated at Oundle Public School. He has written a number of plays with a Socialist message including Events Following the Closure of a Motor Cycle Factory and Destiny (a play concerning the rise of what he perceived to be a National Front type party).

In more recent years he has achieved commercial success by writing an adaptation of Nicholas Nickleby and the screenplay for Lady Jane.

River clean—up too expensive:

IT WOULD take 25 years and more than £400 million to clean up the once beautiful waterways of the North West of England. Putting right 1,000 miles of stinking and dangerously polluted rivers and canals would be the greatest single exercise of its kind ever undertaken.

The rivers of the North West were once some of the most beautiful in Europe and teemed with fish and wildlife of all sorts. But two centuries of abuse by unthinking and profit-hungry industrialists have destroyed this precious heritage.

A slight improvement in some areas during the 1960's and early '70's has now been reversed. This is because of cost-cutting by capitalists seeking to remain profitable in spite of the economic recession which has blighted the North. And government cuts in funds for clean-up work have helped make matters worse.

£900 MILLION DEBT

The North West Water Authority has a debt of £900 million, and the Tories have made it very clear that no money will be made available for a cleaning operation. After all, nature and health cannot be put before profit.

So in our city-orientated, soul-less and selfish society, our rivers are no more than flowing cesspools, clogged with the filth of cities and factories.

This destruction of our land is unacceptable to Nationalists. Local NFN Units should constantly look for opportunities for demonstrations and non-violent direct action against polluters in their area. Positive work to clean up small stretches of waterways could also make a useful Community Action project.

The contrast between the capitalist destruction of our waterways, and the Nationalist vision, is as clear as a mountain stream:

They grub for profit in the filth and darkness of the Old world, we seek to create a New nation to hand on to our children, a country of thriving communities and sparkling rivers - a land "as beautiful as the sun."

PWR's go ahead

A YEAR AGO this month, the explosion of the Russian nuclear power plant at Chernobyl covered much of Europe with a cloud of radio-active fallout.

How many people will die of cancer in years to come as a result is still not known. Farmers in Scotland, the Lake District and Cymru are still unable to sell sheep whose meat now contains dangerous levels of radio-activity. The Soviet Union, with the typical arrogance of a Communist state, has still not even apologized to the other countries affected by the disaster, let alone offered to pay compensation.

"UNTHINKABLE"

The "unthinkable" explosion at a nuclear power station has led to several nations calling a halt to their development of this dangerous, expensive and unnecessary technology. Unfortunately, the British government has not.

The go-ahead for the Sizewell B nuclear plant on the Suffolk coast is only the first part of a construction programme which will bring to our country a growing number of American Pressurized Water Reactors. These are potentially more dangerous than the Russian plant which came close to devastating half our continent.

Cadres and candidate cadres are reminded that they are required to read twelve books as a condition of their membership. The first three books have been determined by the Directorate to be the following:

JUNE - Attempted Murder (Directorate)

FRONT LINE ACTION

Election Meeting—

A NEW STRATEGY

THE NATIONAL FRONT will not contest any seats at the next General Election. This was the decision of an all-day conference of organizers and other key officials held in a hotel in central London at the end of March.

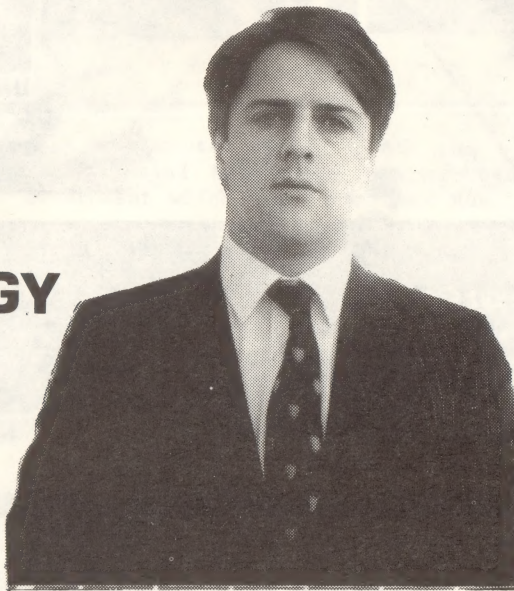

Members of the Directorate led a series of discussions on why the NF contests elections and the benefits and disadvantages of standing in the General Election.

The stimulating and constructive debate led to the decision not to fight on three main grounds:

1) The main reason for contesting parliamentary General Elections at present is to gain new recruits. Yet careful analysis of past experience shows that is not cost effective.

Now that the rich main parties have added to the cost of a campaign by undemocratically increasing the deposit to £500, the likely cost of recruitment on past figures is over £100 per head on the most optimistic figures.

Since only one in seven of all those present at the conference was recruited through a parliamentary election, such campaigns are clearly not a worthwhile tactic in the building of a cadre movement.

2) The five minutes TV time which would be won by contesting the election would not be enough to allow the NF to break through the wall of silence which would be erected against it by the mass media.

As a result, the election will be fought on media created non-issues and on other red-herrings such as the personalities of key politicians, rather than the issues affecting real people and the National Front.

The NF is committed to winning electoral power, but at this stage of our development this can only be achieved at local elections, where the movement can match the resources of the old parties and can overcome media silence or smears.

3) The vast sum of money involved in a proper campaign (at least £50,000) will be far more longterm use if it is used to acquire permanent assets. In order to be effective as a political movement, the National Front now needs printing presses, communications equipment, its own publishing house and regional offices.

FAR MORE WORTHWHILE

It is far more worthwhile to set attainable targets such as the acquisition of these things, than to squander thousands of pounds in an electoral battle with opponents with far more money and experience than us.

From now on, the NF will enter contests to win, not to show that we are just another political party. We are not, we are a revolutionary movement, and at last we are starting to think and act like one.

Readers are urged to give as much money as they would have put into NF election funds to our Technology Fund. Supporters who have pledged money to local units are urged to honour their pledges as quickly as possible so that local units can invest in the merchandise and assets they need to make more money and to function efficiently.

Let others bleed themselves white in the election, our job is to build the Movement of the Future.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?

THIS column is specially designed to keep all N.F. officials well informed of forthcoming activities and to remind them of what needs to be done over the next two weeks.

All N.F. officials and activists must therefore make it a top priority to read this column carefully every issue and then to ACT on the information.

* WHITE NOISE FESTIVAL. Sat. April 25th. Units with merchandise to attend and run stalls. Stewards are required as discussed at St. George's Day cadre meeting.

* REMEMBER ALBERT MARINER Sunday 3rd May. Morning paper sales East Street and Brick Lane from 9.00 a.m. All London units to send teams.

Afternoon graveside meeting. Meet up at Aldgate Tube at 2.00 p.m. Smart, dark dress, please.

* BUYING A COMPUTER? Units, cadres/candidates or NFN Supporters buying a computer are urged to buy from the Amstrad 1512 range if possible. This will help us build an up-to-date nationwide communications and propaganda production network.

* NEXT NFN. In order to give units which lost sales by attending the cadre meeting and the gig time to catch up on sales, the next NFN will be produced one week late, i.e. for weekend of 10th/11th May. Phone for run details.

* UNIT SECRETARIES! Must by now have sent out press statements re. decision on General Election. Send in resulting publicity to P O Box 41.

* ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS. More and more units are making it a rule that people may only attend two local meetings without joining up as NFN Supporters or at least as Friends of the Movement (who may attend and speak but may not vote).

This helps them turn sympathizers into activists and roots out time wasters. Extra supplies of cards available on next lit. run. Get results - demand commitment!

* LOCAL ELECTIONS. Units fighting seats in the May elections must phone in results to the NF Contact Line as soon as they are known.

ALBERT MARINER

MAY 3rd is the anniversary of the murder of war veteran and NF stalwart Albert Mariner. A regular NF News seller in East London's Brick Lane market, pensioner Albert died after being hit on the head by a brick thrown by a Labour party inspired Black mob which was attacking a peaceful NF election meeting in Tottenham in 1981.

In contrast to the murder of PC Keith Blakelock in the same area, Albert's murder was hushed up by the police and the media, in spite of NF calls for a public enquiry.

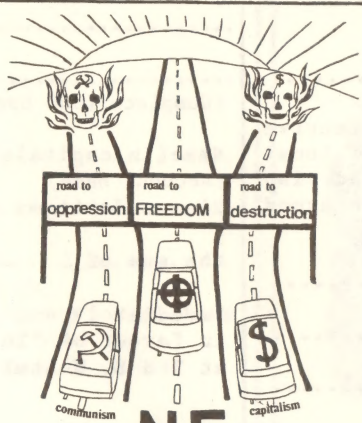

The National Front will not be holding a futile protest march past gawping Japanese tourists in central London this year. Instead, we will remember Albert in a practical way, by holding a mass paper selling drive in London, including on his old sales pitch. This will be followed by a memorial service at his grave.

In spite of the Establishment's silence, the National Front does not forget - and we do not forgive.

BLACKPOOL

THIS EYE-CATCHING poster is just one of the latest items of propaganda produced by the thriving unit of NFN Supporters in Blackpool. Vividly representing the National Front's "Third Way" ideology, it was conceived, drawn, pasted up and printed by local members from start to finish.

It is essential that every NFN unit develops this ability to produce its own propaganda, so it's good to see Blackpool leading the way.

'a way to combat NF'

A PLAN to establish Consett as a major recording centre is seen as a way of combating the National Front's influence.

By MARTIN SHIPTON

The project would be located in a disused school in Hartington Street, Consett. Spearheading the scheme is John Kearney, of the town's Council.

NFN's NEWCASTLE unit is continuing to grow steadily and to gain good publicity, and to drive the Reds frantic.

Over 30 local people attended the unit's last meeting, a fifty percent increase over the average turnout during a quiet spell at the start of the year. They listened with interest to a speech by NF Directorate Chairman, Nick Griffin, about the "new realism" spreading through the movement, and the need to work to achieve attainable targets at national and local level.

Newcastle organizer, Colin Todd, had been invited to join a live BBC Radio Cleveland talk show, but this was called off when the so-called "Anti-Fascist League" refused to take part in a free debate with the NF.

RED STUDENTS

The middle-class students of Tyneside AFL get thousands of pounds each year from the council for their anti-NF campaign, but they know that they are losing the ideological battle for the north east. They will do anything to try to stop the Front getting its views across.

Meanwhile, Durham's Labour Euro MP, Steve Hughes, has asked the EEC Commission to finance an anti-NF campaign in nearby Consett "as a matter of urgent priority."

The Labour party knows that its pathetic failure to run a campaign to keep depression-hit Consett alive has led to a massive growth of support for the National Front in the town, particularly among young people.

And Durham County Council are planning to spend £450,000 to set up a recording studio for young rock musicians in the town. This is not because they want to create jobs in the murdered steel town, or to help young people make something of their lives.

NF INFLUENCE

As Consett's county councillor, Dave Hodgson, explained to the Northern Echo "we have to be concerned about the rise in the National Front, and the lack of facilities for young people in the area makes it easier for them to extend their influence."

The police and courts have done their bit to fight the NF "menace" in the town as well. Local NF organizer and lead singer of Skullhead, Kev Turner, was given a vicious four year prison sentence at the start of the year. All Nationalists are urged to NATIONAL FRONT NEWS sellers are moving back rapidly into areas briefly disrupted by last year's State/Reactionary fraction.

Back Again

Leeds NF have re-established their usual sales pitch in the city centre shopping precinct. Paper sales and donations from supporters are climbing and NFN is once again selling faster than any of its right- or left-wing "rivals" on the streets of Leeds.

Meanwhile, in the West Midlands, Walsall NF are getting organized again. Although their order of 75 copies of our last issue is lower than many units around the country, they hope to build up their sales quite quickly.

This should be easy, as the mixture of race tension and economic decline in the West Midlands makes it an area with really great potential for the revolutionary nationalist message of NF News.

send a message of support to R60123 Turner, HMP Acklington, Nr. Morpeth, Northumberland.

Kev has urged the lads of Consett NF to step up the struggle for National Freedom and Social Justice while he is "inside". NF News is continuing to sell well in the town.

Meanwhile, back in Newcastle, our Supporters have increased their fortnightly NFN order from 150 to 200. This means that more copies of National Front News are now being sold each month in Newcastle than ever before.

Editorial

ALTHOUGH THIS PAPER acknowledges the existence of racial differences, and is therefore proud to describe itself as "racialist", we are opposed to racism. As racialists we base our world view and policies on a positive love of our own people, culture and traditions, and respect the right of other races and nations to do the same. We reject racist theories which advocate hatred of others as "inferior", when in fact they are merely different.

We also reject the race hatred of capitalist/communist materialism, which manifests itself as "multi-racialism", and which seeks to destroy the unique qualities of each race by encouraging race-mixing. We believe that those working to replace the separate races of mankind with a rootless, coffee-coloured human anthep are the real "race haters".

POLITICAL ACTION

This evil process is now well advanced in Britain and can only be opposed by political action designed to replace the capitalist system and the corrupt politicians who imported millions of coloured immigrants into our land. These people were brought here to be exploited as cheap labour and are victims of the System just as much as we are.

We therefore seek to turn hatred of immigrants into the political will needed to bring an end to the failed multi-racial experiment by a humane policy of financially assisted repatriation.

We urge every reader to find out more about this vital issue. Important further reading on the subject will be found in Nationalism Today issue 39, and NFN issues 79, 80, 82, 86 and 87.

The NF opposes both immigration and race hate. We urge you to do the same.

NEW PRICE NEW SIZE

FROM THIS ISSUE, NF News will usually be 10 pages long. The addition of the two page centre slip sheet as a regular feature gives NFN the space to begin to do justice to the vital issues of our age. With the steady increase in the frequency of publication since the start of the year, it means that the National Front is at last developing its own agitational press. The political and organizational advantages of this are enormous.

But such advances are only possible through sacrifice. Our editorial and production staff have committed themselves gladly to a far greater workload in order to build NF News. But paper costs have soared in recent months and the extra sheet obviously adds to the cost. So we have to ask you, the reader, to make a little sacrifice of your own and accept the price increase to 30p per copy.

This increase will do more than give you two extra pages. It has also allowed us to give bigger bulk order reductions to local sales units, who will therefore make more money to help them in their own local campaigns. And it will help raise funds to finance improvements in the typesetting of NFN, which will be our next step forward.

The long work of building the Nationalist alternative to the capitalist media is now really under way. There's a long way to go, but we're getting there.

IMPORTANT NOTICE; Whenever possible hand correspondence for the NF, NF News or Bookshops to your local NF contact, so that it can be delivered through the movement's internal postal system. This is very important when dealing with subscriptions, orders and membership payments.

If you do have to use the Post Office network, ALWAYS use RECORDED DELIVERY and keep your receipt safely.

While the constant interference with our post is irritating, this attempt to disrupt the NF, is a tribute to its growing effectiveness. So rather than moaning about it, all NF members and supporters must accept the hard work and discipline needed to make our internal communications network an efficient alternative.

IT IS NOW one year since American jet bombers took off from airfields in Britain to unleash fire and death on the sleeping city of Tripoli in Libya.

Hundreds of innocent women and children died in the raid. The bombs intended to kill Col. Gaddafi succeeded instead in killing his baby son.

The reason for the raid was the threat posed to the international capitalist system by Gaddafi's Third Position (Neither Capitalism, Nor Communism) ideology. The excuse was the bombing of a Berlin disco used by members of the U.S. occupation forces in Germany.

It is now clear that Gaddafi had nothing to do with that attack, or indeed with any attack on non-Libyans anywhere in the world. The bombings are either the work of Syrian extremists out of their government's control, or more likely of the dirty tricks department of the Israeli secret service, the Mossad. Gaddafi is the innocent victim of a terrorist conspiracy by Western leaders like Reagan and Thatcher (see the Times 1/4/87 for more details).

NOT AN ACCIDENT

This is not an accident. American aggression against independent countries all over the world is not just the product of Reagan's senility; it is simply the inevitable result of a disease called imperialism. Elsewhere in this NFN educational feature, we look at why it is a disease, and at some of the worst examples of this cancer in the modern world.

What exactly is Imperialism?

IMPERIALISM is the domination of one nation or people by another. It is not just a matter of military occupation, although it often involves it. The rulers of an empire actually try to absorb the subject nation into their own system. To do this they undermine its culture and economic independence, seeking to persuade its people that their own nationhood is less important than being part of the larger grouping which makes up the empire.

Since all peoples have an inbuilt preference for rule by their own kind, such a policy can only be maintained by oppression and by cultural or even national genocide.

Imperialism is even a bad thing for the nation which controls the empire. The most idealistic sections of its populations are corrupted and turned against their own people by a guilt complex about exploiting others. "Do-gooders" direct their energies towards the subject peoples, neglecting the poverty to be found in the backstreets of their own cities.

RACE MIXING

And imperialism inevitably leads to the mixing of the different populations and to subject peoples being brought back to the "mother country" as cheap labour. When they are of different races, the result is the sort of disastrous immigration which is destroying the identity of our own country.

The two biggest empires in the world today are the product of the two evil materialist twins - capitalism and communism. Though they operate in slightly different ways, they are both a menace to the peace and freedom of every race and nation - particularly the peoples of Europe.

THE NF NEWS Distributist League is based on co-operation, not unrestricted competition. The aim is to allow units selling good quality and worthwhile products at fair prices to make money for their political campaigns. Units will not be allowed to indulge in wasteful cut-throat competition.

For this reason, NO UNIT is permitted to start on the production of a new range of merchandise without the prior permission of the Directorate member responsible for co-ordinating the Distributist League.

IT'S YOUR FUTURE Get involved & Get active!

THOUSANDS OF YOUNG PEOPLE have found that there is a real alternative to the Old System. Politics needn't be boring and pointless, however hard the politicians try to make it look that this is the case. They deliberately make it seem dull, hoping that the rest of us won't get involved - and get in the way of their corruption and stupidity.

We don't have to sit and watch while they throw away the future and condemn us to a lifetime in the dole queue, or pushing a button in a factory if we're "lucky". We can unite and fight for real political, social and economic change - for a National Revolution.

DREAM INTO REALITY

The organization which is going to turn this dream into reality is the National Front. The NF isn't run by and for Big Business or time-serving union bosses; it's run by people like you, for people like you. The National Front is your movement - designed to save your country.

This country needn't sink into the dustbin of history - it needn't be an industrial museum, it needn't be littered with dead American nuclear bases, it needn't become a coffee coloured, rootless, human cesspit like New York.

Britain could be free, peaceful and prosperous. It could be a great place to live, a great place to work, a great place in which to raise a family. Britain could be run by and for the British peoples.

We have the resources, we have the intelligence, we have the skill. All we need is the driving force to make things start to work. That force is present in all of us, but that it can only be released by a National Revolution. Nationalism is the only force which can unite us and get things done. It is the spirit of action.

IDEAL

Nationalism is the ideal of nature; of eagles flying once more over the snowclad mountains of Cymru, of the mighty English oak defying the autumn gale, of a spring shower on a Scottish loch, of children playing in a hayfield in Ulster, of the waves of the great Atlantic crashing onto the rocky coast of Eire.

It is in our blood. It is in the soil of our land. It is bright and pure beyond belief. It is life. Yet this enormous energy is at present chained by greed and selfishness, smothered by TV soap operas and pigmy politicians, locked away behind doors of hate.

The only key which can release it is a powerful National Revolutionary movement. That is why we are building the National Front, and that is why we need you to get involved.

Individually, we are the helpless victims of Thatcher's nightmare. United, we can build the new land of which we dream!

PRISONER'S AID

THE REPRESSIVE new Public Order laws and Race Act put even greater pressure on the National Front. The law now allows the police to launch dawn raids on the home of any known NF activist.

This move to turn us into outlaws in our own land will lead to more arrests and more court cases. The National Front will only be able to continue its struggle if it has the money to pay for defence campaigns and to help prisoners' families.

This makes your support for the Nationalist Welfare Association even more important.

The fact remains that repatriation is the moral response of the nationalist and the realist, and it is a policy that Britain must adopt sooner or later. Let's hope that it will be sooner both for Britons and for immigrants because it will avoid unnecessary pain and suffering. Black and White unite, you have only the injustice and exploitation of multi-racialism to lose.

BRITAIN'S SECRET POLITICAL POLICE - M.I.5 and their "leg-men" in the Special Branch - have immense power. Their stated role is to guard the present System from "subversive elements." Obviously the great majority of their work remains a closely guarded secret, but the tip of the iceberg which has been revealed in recent weeks is frightening enough.

It shows a "security service" which has engaged in what the Sunday Times calls "a concerted campaign of burglary and smears" intended to disgrace and bring down two properly elected Prime Ministers. The evidence leaves no doubt that M.I.5 is in the hands of an extreme right-wing clique with a paranoid hatred of anything seen as "left-wing" and a fanatical loyalty to capitalism and NATO.

Anyone still naive enough to believe that M.I.5's dirty tricks and subversion of political opponents only go on in spy novels will find the facts below particularly interesting. And everyone should find them shocking.

ILLEGAL CAMPAIGNS

INFORMATION NOW emerging from various former officials of M.I.5 reveals that Britain's secret security service engaged in a long series of illegal campaigns throughout the 1970's. The targets included everyone from Labour and Tory Prime Ministers, to Ulster loyalists.

Allegations about this activity have been rife for years, but evidence to support them was almost impossible to find until the court case over the publication of the memoirs of M.I.5 spycatcher Mr. Peter Wright. The publicity surrounding the case has given several other disillusioned officers the courage to tell their own stories.

Wright himself has admitted that he and his spy team "bugged and burgled our way around London" in their campaign to investigate and discredit Harold Wilson's government between 1974 and '76.

The Labour leader and some of his closest associates suffered a series of burglaries at around the same time. The list of victims included his advisor Marcia Falkender (burgled 3 times); his lawyer, Lord Goodman; his press officer, Jean Denham, and a senior policy advisor, Mr. Bernard Donoghue. Wilson himself suffered two break-ins, as well as the theft from his storage office of many tax documents and tape-recordings about foreign affairs.

FALSE SMEARS

A series of fabricated stories were leaked to the press falsely linking Wilson to Labour personalities engaged in tax fraud and other brands of financial, political or sexual misconduct.

Three former intelligence operatives in Ulster have now come forward to support Wright's story. They confess to having been part of this very elaborate black propaganda campaign. One of them, Colin Wallace, was attached to M.I.5 as an army intelligence officer until he resigned in 1976 in protest at the illegal operations.

Wallace claims that M.I.5 forged bank statements to suggest, wrongly, that politicians such as Ian Paisley had embezzled funds. And they also produced fake leaflets to plant with arms finds. These bore communist symbols alongside the Red Hand of Ulster and were intended to convince press reporters that loyalist paramilitary groups were being taken over by Marxists.

DIRTY TRICKS

But Wallace says that the main thrust of the dirty tricks campaign was to get the "right sort" of government in power at Westminster. The first target was Wilson. Forged "Labour party policy statements" bearing the names of cabinet ministers were used to link the Labour administration with terrorist groups and communist front organizations.

Another undercover agent, James Miller, was ordered to infiltrate the loyalist paramilitary Ulster Defence Association. He did so and became one of its military commanders for almost five years. In 1974 his M.I.5 case officers, who included a Lt. Col. Brian X, ordered him to get UDA men at grass-roots level to "start pushing" for a general strike against Wilson's power sharing proposals.

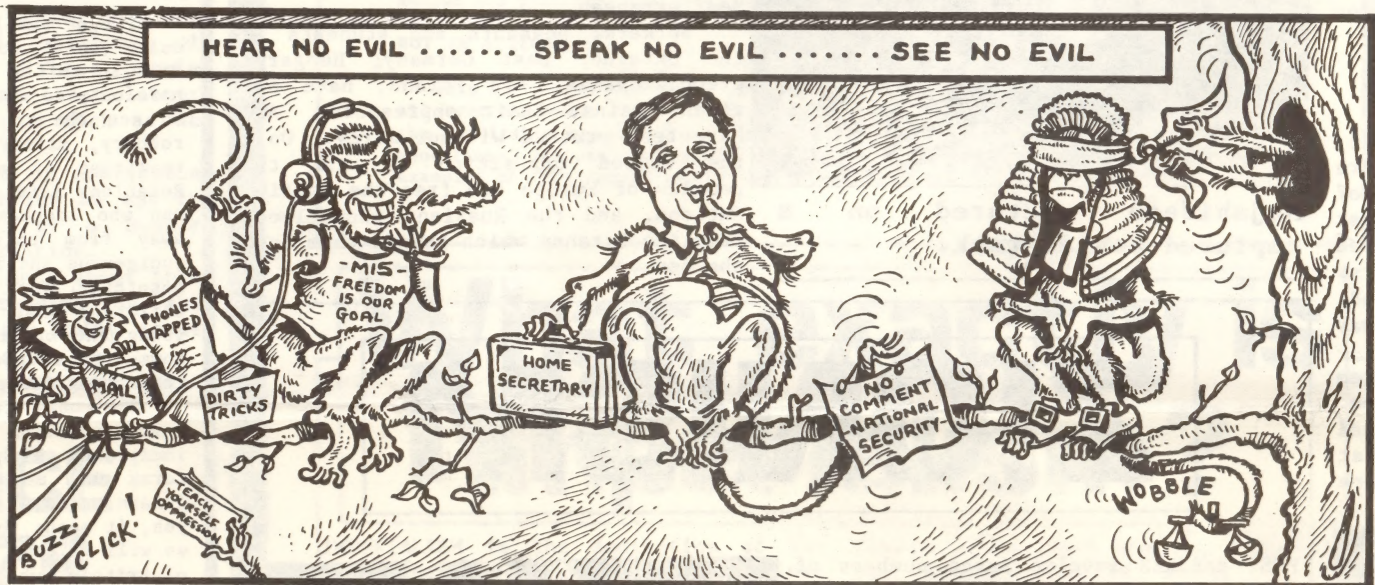

He did so, and thus played a major role in bringing about the Ulster workers' strike which wrecked the treacherous Sunningdale agreement giving the Dublin government a say in Ulster's affairs.

The intention was not, however, to help the Ulster loyalists. The sole aim was to embarrass Wilson. So as soon as the government surrendered, M.I.5 stopped pushing for further loyalist action. The strike was not followed up and the loyalist population went back to sleep instead of going on to take over power for themselves.

COUP PLOT

The following year, the chairman and former chairman of the Cunard shipping company were approached by a top civil servant and by senior army officers and asked to take part in a coup against the Wilson government. They wanted to use the QE2 as a floating prison for the cabinet. Both men reported this to Sir Michael Cary, then permanent secretary at the Ministry of Defence. Cary, now dead, appears to have taken no action.

'that special branch'

At the same time as these plots and attacks on the Labour party, M.I.5 psychological operations (known as "psycops") were running against Edward Heath and other Tory M.P.s thought to be too liberal. Wallace says that "the aim was to discredit them politically by planting smear stories against them in the press." Heath and other bachelor politicians were wrongly "linked" to a number of homosexual scandals.

The aim, according to Wallace, was to remove Heath as leader of the Conservative party and replace him with someone with a more resolute approach to political and industrial unrest. Eight years of Thatcher rule and the growth of a repressive police state are the direct result of this campaign.

SECRET POLICE

So Britain's secret police got the sort of government they wanted. But they haven't packed their black bags and gone home. More than ever before, M.I.5, Special Branch and the riot control police are geared up to prevent any effective challenge to the ruling System.

According to yet another M.I.5 "whistleblower", Kathy Massitter, there are "hundreds" of police informers and agents in "domestic targets" in Britain.

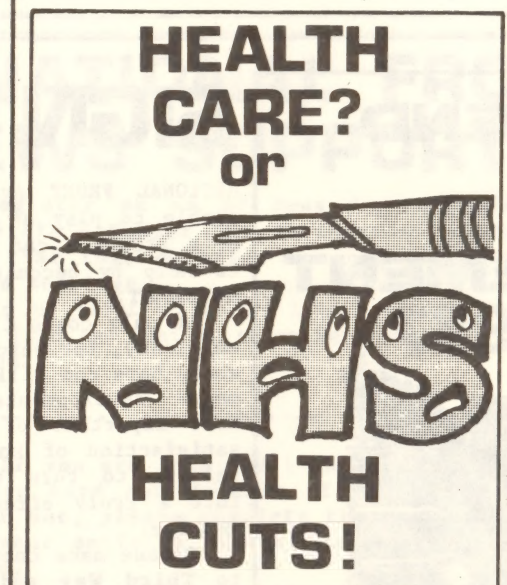

There is no doubt that one of their main targets for several years now has been the National Front, for while we share their loathing of Communism, our far more attractive alternative to Capitalism makes us an even bigger potential threat to the System.

This is why it should come as no surprise that at least one of the key figures in last year's Flag splinter group is known to have been working for the security services, while several other of its national and local personnel have large question marks hanging over them.

The purging of these creatures from the National Front is the single most important advance the movement has made for years. But this is not the end of our struggle against State subversion and repression, it is just the beginning.

THE DETAILED story of the M.I.5 manipulation of a clique of reactionaries, drunks and deadbeats in an attempt to take over the National Front last year, may be read in Attempted Murder. Subtitled "The State/Reactionary Plot Against the NF", it is an eye-opening yet exciting book.

Its publication was a milestone in the demise of the now defeated reactionary fraction, but it still contains important lessons for the future, as well as being essential reading for everyone who wants to understand the recent changes in the National Front.

service running from day-to-day.

Local nurses and doctors have warned that hospitals and services cannot stand any more cutbacks and still maintain anything like a proper service. Health care in the region has already declined, with tragic consequences.

The recent closure of the Ancoats hospital casualty unit, for example, has meant that there is not a casualty department within eight miles of this heavily populated area. A seriously ill fourteen year old boxer from Oldham who would once have been cared for at nearby Ancoats had to be taken all the way to the emergency department at North Manchester General. The lad died as a result.

The message in the North West, as in the rest of Britain, is clear: Tory Health Cuts Cost Lives!

COMMUNITY ACTION

COMMUNITY ACTION seeks to help the National Front sink local roots. Indeed, we see this as a very small step along the road to establishing a whole network of NF Advice Centres throughout the British Isles.

We want to expose local council corruption and incompetence, fight closures of schools, factories and hospitals, and campaign for decent housing and social services for our people. We also try to carry articles on what people are entitled to by way of benefits and consumer rights. We hope that this helps individual readers as well as giving NF activists the knowledge they need to give advice to people in need of Community Action help.

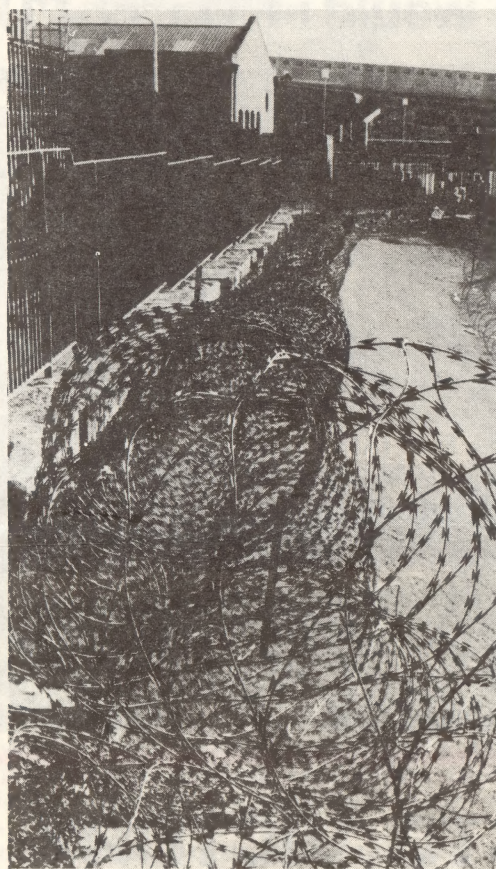

We also wish to help encourage self-help and community pride and care, which are being destroyed by the selfish attitudes which dominate our society.

If you want Community Action to focus on a problem or campaign in your area, send further details to Community Action, P O Box 41, Norwich, NR3 2AH, Norfolk.

A NUMBER of NFN Supporters units have made good progress on the Community Action front. Barking, Blackpool and Havering in particular have had notable successes, while others, such as Sheffield, are hard at work.

But only a minority of units are really making an effort. Too many others think that Community Action is an optional extra in their list of activities. It is not. Community Action is a crucial part of the National Front's strategy of sinking firm roots in local communities.

This feature therefore takes an in-depth look at the theory and practice of Community Action - why it is so important, and how it can be done.

Many NF activists were involved at scab Murdoch's "Fortress Wapping". Why don't they get involved in local strikes?

THERE ARE DOZENS of problems in every community suitable for NF Community Action. And the decline of the social services under Tory cuts is steadily adding to the list.

Pensioners need help in winter; streams, ponds and beauty spots are used as rubbish dumps; workers at a local factory are on strike; the police refuse to act over a mugging black spot - get your Community Action team into action.

This is also an area in which women members and supporters can play a particularly valuable role. From the simplest baby-sitting circle to the running of a more ambitious play group or pressing for a safe playground, the potential here is enormous.

It's up to you to find the right approach for your area. Let NFN know how you get on!

Have you a gripe about your local council? Is your local school, factory or hospital being closed down? Do you live in bad housing conditions? Then contact your local Organizer, NF News papersellers, or Community Action, and we'll fight on your behalf. (Please enclose a stamp-addressed envelope for a reply).

PULL YOUR FINGERS OUT

THERE ARE three reasons for NF Community Action. First, it is a tactic for political victory. Secondly, it is an important defensive measure against repression. Thirdly, it is a moral necessity for National Revolutionaries.

1) TACTICAL VALUE. The National Front has very limited resources. In every respect - money, assets, manpower and training - we are weaker than our opponents in the old parties. We must therefore fight a political guerilla war against them.

The basic rule of guerilla warfare (political as well as military) is to concentrate all your forces against one weak point in the enemy's defences. Even though he is overall far stronger, this makes it possible to gain local superiority in one small area. Then, from that firm base, similar advances can be made elsewhere.

In political terms, this means that we must stop wasting time, money and energy in frontal assaults on the System's strong points like General Elections and big set-piece confrontations with the State or the Reds. With the big guns of the mass media and the police force ranged against us, such activities are political suicide.

But by concentrating at local level, our forces can match those which our opponents can bring to bear. While we cannot effectively answer smears at nationally, we can counter them at a local level. All the lies of the press and TV quickly lose their impact when local residents actually get to know NF members through door-to-door sales and constructive local activities.

2) DEFENCE AGAINST REPRESSION. As economic decline makes the NF's ideas more attractive and the movement becomes better organized, it is inevitable that the State will use repression to defend itself against the British people.

If the National Front is an isolated body of dedicated fanatics with no links with ordinary people, it will be very easy to portray our movement as some sinister threat to social order, and to crush it accordingly.

But if the National Front has put down local roots, this will be impossible. If thousands of ordinary people have had direct experience of the NF doing constructive work to benefit their community, the media will not be able to get away with lies about us being a gang of destructive terrorists.

Community Action will turn us from being regarded as troublesome outsiders to being seen as a part of the community. Any State attack on our movement will then be seen by the people who identify with us as an attack on them. This is the only defence against repression which stands a chance of success.

3) LIVING OUR IDEALS. Community Action is also essential because it allows us to start putting our Nationalist ideals into practice, right now.

The National Front is not interested in power for power's sake, but in order to use it to benefit every member of the nation.

We seek to build a community benefit state, where individuals are free to run their own lives, but where everything is done within the framework of the common good. We see the nation as an extended family, where every member has duties towards the rest of the family, as well as individual rights.

For such a system to become a reality, there must first be a revolution in the heart of every individual. And for our ideals to have life and substance, the first people to be transformed in this way must be the activists and supporters of the National Front.

The only way that this can happen is if we start, now, to work to help the less fortunate members of our national family. You cannot help save a nation until you have got into the habit of helping your neighbour.

We are not just another bourgeois political party, so we must stop trying to behave like one. The National Front is the movement for the salvation of Britain and her peoples, it is time we started to act accordingly.

Dear Community Action,

My gripe is that.....

MAGILLIGAN FLARES UP AGAIN

As we predicted it would in March (1)

SEPARATION

THE REACTION of the media to the demands for the segregation of Loyalist and Republican prisoners in Magilligan prison, was all too predictable. Even when the taking of hostages made it a major news story, not one national newspaper and not one mainland TV news programme bothered even to mention the reason for the loyalists' demand for segregation. They all tried to portray it as the result of Protestant religious bigotry.

Not one word was said about the daily intimidation and violence suffered by Loyalist prisoners at the hands of jailed Republican thugs. Not one word was said about the absurdity of forcing loyalists to live side by side with the IRA terrorists who have murdered their friends and loved ones.

CRIMINALIZATION

This is in line with the government's attempt to "criminalize" the struggle in Northern Ireland. The aim is to convince the rest of the world that the "problem" is the work of a few isolated criminal gangs. Once they are beaten, goes this "reasoning", a pacified province can be quietly transferred to Eire.

This is, of course, nonsense. The struggle is not criminal, it is political. It is not a clash of gangs, but a clash of nations. Any attempt to bring peace which does not recognize this fact is doomed to failure.

Has Ulster gained a new Volunteer or was Tony Benn just caught out? The NF have always called for segregation for Loyalist and Republican P. O. W.'s.

The "Northern Ireland question" will only be answered when Ulster is given - or takes - her right to national self-determination. When it becomes clear to everyone that Ulster is a nation in her own right, then the ambitions of Eire will be exposed for the aggressive imperialism which they are.

EQUAL RIGHTS

And when the new government of Ulster guarantees equal rights for every loyal citizen, regardless of religion, the IRA will no longer be able to pose as the protectors of the Catholic minority.

Republican terrorists will then have a simple choice. They can be wiped out in a short war against local security forces loyal to the new secular Ulster, or go south and take up the struggle to protect their Gaelic culture from the internationalist governments of their own land.

Until that happens, the killing will continue and the media will carry on telling lies about the brave young Loyalists in Thatcher's prison camps.

FORWARD TO VICTORY

THIS ARTICLE was held up "in the post" from Ulster and so missed our last issue. But its argument is still valid.

As we suspected would happen, the old "Unionist" political leaders have continued to dither and have refused to give a firm "yes" or "no" to the Ulster Clubs' proposals. These self-satisfied old men are now getting in the way of more radical leaders with a positive vision of a New Ulster.

They have failed. They should step down now - before they are pushed!

THE WISHES of the 400,000 people who recently petitioned the Queen for the right to express their views on the Anglo-Irish Agreement in a referendum have been arrogantly brushed aside by their colonial overlord Tom King.

King said that he already knew that most people in Ulster are opposed to the Hillsborough Agreement, but that this will make no difference to him. The joint Northern Ireland Office/Dublin junta will remain in place.

This is the final proof of the assertion in the last issue of NF News that the joint Unionist protest strategy has run its course. Molyneux and Paisley have finally run out of gimmicks.

However, N.F.N. welcomes the publication of the document Forward to Victory by the Ulster Clubs movement. This document proposes the formation of a "Northern Ireland Grand Committee" as an alternative to the Northern Ireland Office. Each NIO Department of State will be shadowed by a sub-committee of the N.I. Grand Committee.

NF PROPOSALS

Many of the proposals in the Ulster Clubs' new document have been advocated by this newspaper and the National Front since early last year. We are glad to see our ideas beginning to be taken up by others.

There is a long way to go, but we regard the formation of the Northern Ireland Grand Committee as the long overdue first step towards the formation of an Ulster Provisional Government.

The Molyneux/Paisley Unionist leadership have now been thrown a face-saving lifeline by the Ulster Clubs. If these two are genuinely interested in saving Ulster, it is their duty to accept and implement the Ulster Club's proposals. If they do not accept the proposals and continue their ineffectual dithering, they must quietly retire and make way for a more radical and determined leadership.

KICKED OUT

Thatcher has kicked Ulster out of the Union. The Anglo-Irish Agreement is the thin end of the wedge. It is the stepping stone towards a United Ireland. The time has come to plan seriously for a free and independent Ulster. For in the short term it is only through independence that we can defend our freedoms, heritage, culture and traditions.

The National Front is the only political movement to publically proclaim this message. Join us in our fight against Eire imperialism and dead-end Unionism. Join us in our struggle for National Freedom and Social Justice!
